

2017 RELIGIOUS LIBERTY ESSAY SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST

Sponsored by the Religious Liberty Council of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty

Entry forms are pages 2 and 3 of this document.

Essay Topic

The United States, along with many other countries, gives safe haven to refugees of war-torn countries. Many factors are taken into account when determining who is allowed to enter our borders. During the 2016 presidential campaign, there was discussion around the idea of denying entrance to some immigrants and refugees based on their religion.

In an essay, discuss whether a religious test should be conducted as a part of the United States' immigration and refugee policies.

Explore the intersection, if any, between the proposed test and the two religion clauses in the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. Be sure to identify the implications for religious liberty of all citizens in your answer.

Eligibility

The contest is open to all high school students in the graduating classes of 2017 and 2018. There are no requirements regarding GPA, faith, after-school activities or clubs.

Prizes

First Place – $2,000 & a trip for two to Washington, D.C.*

Second Place – $1,000

Third Place – $500

Length

800 (minimum) to 1,200 (maximum) words

Note: word count does not include title and bibliography

Submission & Due Date

The essay, student registration form and essay adviser form all must be mailed together to the following address and postmarked no later than March 10, 2017. No email or fax entries will be accepted:

Baptist Joint Committee Essay Contest
200 Maryland Avenue, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

Requirements

1. Submitted essays should be in 12-point type, double-spaced and single-sided. To ensure fairness, your name (or any other identifying information) should not appear on any page of the essay.

2. Essays must have a title at the top of the first page of the essay (do not use a title page).

3. Essays must be between 800-1,200 words, not counting the title and bibliography. Please do not fold or staple your essay; you may use a paper clip.

4. Sources must be used, cited and credited in a bibliography, consistent with an accepted citation style. Wikipedia may not be used as a source.

5. Each essay must be accompanied by an essay adviser form, signed to verify the essay is the student's original work.

Essays failing to meet the requirements will not be judged.

Winners will be announced by the end of summer 2017. The first-place winner will be recognized at the BJC board meeting in Washington, D.C., in October 2017. All entrants will hear from the Baptist Joint Committee by email or U.S. mail after the winners are selected.

Essay Adviser Information

Students must have an "essay adviser" who verifies, to the best of his or her knowledge, that the essay is the student's original work and may review the essay to ensure it meets all requirements. Advisers must be a teacher or counselor at the applicant's school or on staff at the applicant's house of worship. The adviser cannot be the student's parent unless the parent home-schools the student. An adviser form must be mailed with the essay entry. An adviser may work with more than one student, but each essay must be submitted with its own adviser form.

Judging Criteria

Entries will be judged on the depth of their content, the mastery of the topic and the skill with which they are written. Students should develop a point of view on the issue and demonstrate critical thinking, using appropriate examples, arguments and other evidence to support their position. Essays should be free of grammatical errors and should be clear, concise and well-organized. Judges reserve the right to reduce the number of awards.

Visit BJCOnline.org/contest for more information or contact Charles Watson Jr. by email at cwatson@BJCOnline.org.

Note: All essays become property of the BJC and cannot be returned.

*Trip includes actual airfare costs to D.C. up to a predetermined amount and one night of lodging for the contest winner and one accompanying parent/guardian to present the winning essay at the BJC board meeting.
